

Sisters of Mercy
Mid-Atlantic Community
“Come and See”

Come and meet the Sisters of Mercy of the Mid-Atlantic Community. The Mid-Atlantic Community includes Southeastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania and all of New Jersey. We are hosting an overnight informational retreat experience for single, Catholic women, age 20–40, who are interested in exploring religious life and the Sisters of Mercy. The gathering will provide an opportunity to meet some Sisters of Mercy and ask questions about their life. The experience will include meeting other women who are exploring religious life. It will also include time for information gathering, sharing, praying and informal conversation. We hope you can join us!
